Reviews of the Wow! Babies! by Penny Gentieu

Coron

My kids are in the book. LOVE IT.

Faebai

The "book" was reviewed on a morning news show as helpful for new mothers to understand their new babies moods and expressions. It was a very thin "book" with pictures of babies. Was much less than expected.

Dangerous

My children have ALL grown up with this book! We had to order a copy again, because the first two we had were torn up from lots of LOVE!

Ce

My daughter LOVED this book. I mean LOVED. If your child likes baby faces in books they will delight at this one. Ours is literally tattered from all the love.

Leniga

My baby, now 8 months old, loves this book as well as "Baby! Talk!" and "Grow! Babies!" (also by same author/photographer). We first found it at our local library when she was about 4 months old, but I finally had to order it when we ran out of renewals. I love that the babies are so engaging, of different ethnicities, and show different moods. I also enjoy the straight-forward text that doesn't rhyme and won't make you feel stupid to read out loud.

Arilak

My son received this book as a gift when he was about 5 mo old. Now, almost a year later, he still loves it! He is absolutely mesmerized by all of these babies. The only page that he doesn't seem to like is the "Cry Babies" page, which, of course, shows babies crying. He quickly moves on to the next page. All in all, this book is a home run! Expect to read it over and over and over again.

I bought this bok for my son before he was even born and now that he is 17 months old he is totally fascinated by this book. He loves to look at the pictures of the babies. The book consists of maybe 10 sentences which is wonderful for children(my son especially) who have short attention splans when it comes to reading. He looks at this book while I change his diaper, while he eats his super, and throught out the day. When he wants me to read it to him, he brings it to me and says" Mommy, wowie babies!"

I bought this book for my son when he was just about a year old, and he loved it. He at first liked looking at the faces, and laughed when we would describe the different scenarios on each page. He enjoyed this book for a very long time and it is so worn out I am getting a new one for his little sister.
