When Marvin Redpost agrees to go over to Casey Happleton's house, he doesn't know what he's in for. Casey shows him the magic crystal she has just found and offers to give Marvin a few wishes. Is the crystal really magic? Or is it too good to be true?

Reviews of the A Magic Crystal? (A Stepping Stone Book(TM)) by Amy Wummer,Louis Sachar

this is a great series, it got my fourth grader boy out of a reading rut. Once he started reading, he was hooked and finished the series in a few days.

NI_Rak

My little girl read #8 right before she summer break. She asked me to order her another one, and when she devoured that one in a day, I ended up buying the rest of them. She has read them all now and wishes there were more. They are great books for children who are just beginning real chapter books :)

My 8 year old loves this author and series! He really enjoys the characters and the stories!

Manemanu

My 8 year old loves this series. It is very relatable and fast reading for him.

Louis Sachar books are great for kids who love comedy or funny stories. I had a kid who hated to read but he loves these books.

CopamHuk

These books are great for kids who are picky or have difficulty getting into books and love comedy. KID'S REVIEW: I didn't like this book because it was weird in a lot of ways. But it does have a lot of funny parts.
